This is a handwritten musical score on six staves. The notation is in a historical style, featuring diamond-shaped notes and a treble clef on each staff. The lyrics are in Latin and are written below the staves. The text is: 'um deum & homi-', 'nem genuisti', 'genuisti & post partum virgo', 'in uio lata permanisti', and 'Dei genitrix'. There are some faint markings above the first staff, possibly indicating a key signature or time signature. The paper is aged and slightly discolored.

A single line of musical notation on a five-line staff. The notation includes various note values, including minims, crotchets, and quavers, along with rests. The notes are written in a style typical of early printed music, with some notes having stems and others being beamed together. The staff is a simple five-line structure with no clef or key signature visible.
